ShowInstructions():

Input: None
Output: None
Function: Introduce participant to task and walk them through two practice trials—one 'white' trial and one 'rainbow' trial

---

Display text introducing the task until a key has been pressed.

↓

Start 1st practice trial ('white')

↓

Explain interval number display and how to time. Press any key to advance

↓

Display practice interval (6"). Press any key to advance

↓

Display fixation square, instruct participant to press any key when they perceive 6 seconds have passed

↓

Display rating scale and explain options (Early = pressed well before interval, Close = pressed fairly accurately, Late = pressed well after the interval). Participant must use arrows to select rating response and press ENTER to advance

---

Start 2nd practice trial ('rainbow')

↓

Display practice interval (12")—will advance automatically after 10 seconds

↓

Reset keyboard and wait 2 seconds with blank screen

↓

Show fixation square with color changing background until key has been pressed. Background will add 2 to hue every 0.05 seconds.

↓

Display color selection directions and color selection wheel. Mouse click color to advance

↓

Display rating scale and rating scale directions. Select rating with arrows and press ENTER to advance.

↓

Display final directions before beginning task. Press any key to advance. Code will wait 5 seconds before executing next line.